Ike, Macmillan Visit Dulles, Begin Talks on Berlin Status

See Ailing Secretary, Go to Mountain Retreat

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan began their important talks on Berlin and German problems during a visit today with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

The two leaders and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd paid a call on the ailing Dulles en route to Camp David in the Maryland mountains where the talks will start in earnest later in the day.

The White House said the visit with Dulles was more than a courtesy call. Presidential Press Secretary James Hagerty said he assumed the half hour or so stop at Walter Reed involved "some preliminary discussions" of the desire for a firm Allied stand in the Berlin crisis.

Go to Camp David

While the top figures were at Walter Reed, a group of U.S. and British officials left the White House by helicopter for Camp David.

Acting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter led the U.S. delegation in a Marine helicopter, accompanied by John Hay Whitney, U.S. ambassador to Britain; Livingston Merchant, assistant secretary of state for European affairs; and Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, White House staff secretary.

Following in an Army helicopter were the British ambassador, Sir Harold Caccia; Sir Norman Brook, secretary of the British Cabinet; and Sir Frederick Hoyer Millar, permanent undersecretary of the foreign office.

The two helicopters took off from the south grounds of the White House.

Awaiting Ike, Mac

A helicopter was waiting at Bethesda, Md., Naval Center for Eisenhower and Macmillan. The center is in the general area of Walter Reed.

At the rustic retreat in the Catoctin Mountains, about 65 miles from Washington, Eisenhower and Macmillan will plunge into detailed discussions which will keep the White House on Monday.

them occupied through Sunday. Final talks probably will be held at

During the conferences, they will seek to reconcile conflicting views and develop a unified allied viewpoint for negotiating with the USSR.

Officials Say There Is No Flood Danger Now

Spring Starts Saturday, But Heavy Snow Warning Issued for Area

Rock River rose to its highest level of the season in Dixon today, and is expected to go higher. Public Service Company officials said the rate of flow over the dam and through the power generators on the river was 17,500 cubic feet per second.

When the river is low the rate is about 1,000 cubic feet, and the normal rate is 3,000 to 5,000, according to company officials.

A spokesman said the river probably will continue to rise slowly until Sunday or Monday, but that there is now no danger of serious flooding in the area. However, he said, a substantial amount of rain could cause a serious situation, but colder temperatures predicted for tonight and Saturday should slow the runoff from melting snow and reduce the danger.

Heavy Snow Warning

With spring starting officially Saturday, the weather bureau issued a heavy snow warning for northern Illinois, including the Dixon area. Total accumulation is expected to be about four inches. Temperatures will drop to near 25 tonight, and rise to the low 30s Saturday. That compares with a high of 65 degrees in Dixon Thursday and a 12:30 p.m. reading of 54 today.

The snow will come from a huge storm which spread from the Rocky Mountains to the high Plains today.

16-Inch Snow

Up to 16 inches of snow, whipped by 35-mile winds into blinding clouds, hit Wyoming, halting work on Cheyenne's missile launching base.

Heavy snow warnings were posted for Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, northern Illinois and north-central Kansas.

Colder readings will reduce the flood threat in northwestern Illinois.

Maniac Caught, 4 Captives Safe

Crazed Ex-Con Gives Up, Still Vows to Kill Foe

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—A 29-year-old mother and her three children, pawns in an ex-convict's mad scheme against a former cellmate, were rescued by state police after being held captive for 20 hours.

Richard A. Payne, 23, surrendered late Thursday afternoon at a roadblock near Logan, 70 miles south of here, after firing two shots at trailing police. He had planned to use Mrs. John Baldwin and her children as a wedge to force the release of Burton Junior Post from the state penitentiary.

Payne had vowed vengeance — and death — on Post and threatened torture and death to his hostages if his demands were not met. The men were cellmates for 17 months of Payne's seven years in prison.

Talking freely and calmly with reporters, Payne said flatly:

"I'll Kill Post"

"If they send me back to the pen, I'm going to kill Post. They can't keep me from him in there. I just hope he's ready for me."

Payne did not go into detail as to the cause of his pent-up passion against Post. Thursday Post told a guard at the penitentiary he had no idea what Payne had against him.

Payne was released from prison eight days ago. Today, the sallow, heavy-lidded young man faces kidnaping charges. He was held at Kanawha County Jail.

Stuck to Story

In jail, Payne stuck to his story of why he kidnapped the woman and her children from their home in nearby South Charleston Wednesday night.

Payne said he had planned the kidnapping for about two weeks but didn't select the Baldwins as his victims until he went to their home—three doors away from his house—and gained admittance on the pretext of wanting to use the telephone.

"I regret only that I was caught before I got Post," Payne said.

"I was going to get his head and sort of preserve it. He's an enemy of my existence, and I hate

NEWSROOM NOTES — Do you know any invalid or shut-in who would appreciate receiving a dozen roses?

If you do, you're invited to call Mike Lazarus, 2-0711, and give him the name. The roses will be delivered April 11, the Dixon Lions Club annual rose day.

The rose day this year will follow the pattern of the last five years. Lions will take orders from now until March 31 for roses at $3 per dozen. There is no choice of color, but the majority of the flowers are red.

Lions will deliver the roses to those who order them, and in addition will deliver free roses to invalids. That's why they want the names now. Don't call about patients in KSB Hospital, Rest Haven and Mansion Nursing Homes or the Lee County Nursing Home. They'll be taken care of automatically.

When you buy the roses, you'll be helping a Dixon student attend college. The proceeds from past sales have gone into a scholarship loan fund, and the current sale will increase that fund. Lions report that three local students have borrowed a total of $4,000 for use in attending institutions of higher learning. The students accepting the interest-free loans agree to start repaying them a year after they graduate. The money then is loaned again.

Another Lions Club project soon will mean a more active life for a Dixon Woman. Mrs. Lowell (Donna) Yordy, 26, 516½ N. Galena Ave., who is blind, will go to Rochester, Mich., Sunday to attend the Leader Dog School.

The Lions International will pay all her expenses for a four-week course, and she will receive a guide dog without charge. Dr. Leslie Hinkle, chairman of the local club's sight conservation committee, said Dixon Lions have contributed to the project for the last 10 years. This will be the first time that a Dixonite will take part in the program.

UAR Says It's Still at War With Israel

CAIRO (AP) — The United Arab Republic today said Israel cannot send export cargoes through the Suez Canal because a state of war still exists between the UAR and Israel.

Israel complained to the United Nations Wednesday that canal authorities had prevented a Liberian and a West German ship from carrying Israeli products through the waterway.

Airman Uses Test Chamber To Kill Self

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — An airman sealed himself inside a high-altitude test chamber set for 73,000 feet, then ripped off his oxygen mask to commit suicide at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base.

Released Today

The body of the airman, Walter M. Moore, 19, of Anniston, Ala., was found in the chamber March 9. Details of the death were released today by the Air Force.

Officials at the base, near Tucson, said Moore had gone to the building housing the heavy steel chamber to do some work the night of March 8. The indicator was set at 73,000 feet, almost as high as it would go. He sealed himself in and waited for death from lack of oxygen, officials said.

An oxygen mask was found near the body.

An autopsy showed no evidence of foul play.

Suicide Note

Base officials said Moore left a suicide note in which he asked that his associates not feel unkindly toward him for this action.

Moore was a physiological technician with the 803rd Medical Group. He was one of several instructors who "went up" with students in the altitude chamber to familiarize them with high-altitude flying.

Moore joined the Air Force in March 1958.

Collegians Cram 22 Into Phone Booth

MORAGA, Calif. (AP)—Howdy now, London, we have a new world record telephone booth crowd.

Twenty-two St. Mary's College students jammed into a phone booth in a dormitory Thursday. The British claimed 18.

The London University team used a booth 3 feet square and 8 feet 4 inches tall and the English men squeezed in three layers of six each.

The St. Mary's booth measured 3 feet by 7 feet, enough room for three layers, seven each, plus one.

Dixon Grade Band Enters Area Contest

The Dixon Grade School Band will take part in the Northern Illinois District Band, Solo and Ensemble Contest in the Sterling Junior High School Saturday.

After the band performance at 9 a.m., 65 Dixon students will be judged on solo performances and 21 ensembles, including 59 students, will play. The soloists and ensembles are scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

All students who win a first rating will be eligible to compete in the state contest in Belvidere April 25, according to Bardell Bowman, band director.

The students taking part will leave South Central School by bus at 7:30 a.m. Saturday.

Peru City Attorney Tied To Both Brewery, Union

Tells at Rackets Probe Of Teamster Legal Fee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The testimony of a Peru, Ill., attorney reveals he received a $4,000 legal fee from the Teamsters Union, which was fighting another union to represent workers at the lawyer's brewery.

John J. Clinch Jr., told the Senate Rackets Committee Thursday he saw no conflict of interest in representing the brewery and the union.

Clinch, city attorney of Peru, is vice president and counsel for the Star Union Brewery of Peru. He testified his wife's family owns controlling interest in Star Union.

Testimony didn't bring out the reason why Clinch received $4,000 from the Teamsters. However, Clinch later told a newsman the $4,000 was a fee from the Teamsters for representing a union member, Albert Morrissey, in a law suit concerning a battle for control of Teamster Local 46 in Peru.

Now Being Struck

The brewery now is being struck by the United Mine Workers Union, which is involved in a dispute with the Teamsters concerning which union has the right to represent the brewery's workers.

Clinch also told of signing a contract for the brewery with the Teamsters Union shortly before the Mine Workers went on strike.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said the Teamsters couldn't claim to represent a single employe in the brewery. Kennedy said all the employes belonged to the Mine Workers.

24 Boys She Dated

Faculty Liquor Raiders Find 'Canned' Coed

FULTON, Mo. (AP) — A faculty raiding party searching for liquor in a dormitory at William Woods College found a suitcase filled with empty beer cans in a woman student's room.

A boy's name was written in nail polish on each of 24 cans.

College officials said the student explained that the cans were mementos of various dates. On each date, she collected a beer can, painted her date's name on it and filed it away.

Chicago Zoo Sleuths Watch Mother Toad

CHICAGO (AP) — Sleuths are keeping a near-24-hour vigil at Brookfield Zoo.

They are watching a family of South American surinam toads in an effort to learn one of the mysteries of natural science: How do mother toads get their hatched eggs upon their backs to incubate?

"I have slogged through the jungles of South America to find out," said one of the frog-watchers, Robert Snedigar, curator of reptiles. He never has.

Joining him in the project is Dr. George Rabb, curator of scientific research. Night watchmen have been alerted to keep their eyes on the tank the toads call home. A movie camera with lights has been set up.

Snedigar, who has spent 30 years seeking the solution, and Dr. Rabb are keeping a close watch to see how long it takes for the eggs to become tadpole and then toad.

But the big interest is on the pregnant mother. Watchmen have been alerted to call the curators the moment egg-laying begins.

Drunk Customer Irked, Robs Bar, Then Gets Beer

DETROIT (AP) — A customer at an East Side bar became angry when he was refused service because he was drunk.

The man drew a gun and took $79 from the till and six patrons. Then he ordered the waitress to give him a beer and drinks for the house. She did.

Bus Hits Car, Kills 4 Persons

8 of 41 Bus Passengers Are Taken to Hospital

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — A Greyhound bus, northbound in a rainstorm, hit an automobile near here today. The four occupants of the car were killed.

Eight of the 41 bus passengers were taken to a hospital. None was reported seriously hurt.

The dead were identified as Sanford D. Bodrow of Newark, N. J.; Ernest W. Davies, 22, Atlanta, who carried a recent Army discharge and had no street address in his papers; Norman Lichter, 20, Newark, N. J.; and Barry Jacobson, 18, Newark.

The car had a New Jersey license.

Lt. Henry Randall of the Highway Patrol said the car pulled from a side road on the west side of the four-lane highway and across the southbound lane into the path of the bus.

Crushed Nearly Flat

The car was crushed nearly flat by the impact, Randall said. Jacobson, who was driving, was thrown under the rear wheels of the bus.

Injured were Margaret E. Rich, Sandusky, Mich.; Anna Rublig, Bay City, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cary and Anna Martin, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Cooper of Buckhead, Ga.; and Richard A. Newman, 63, Jacksonville, driver of the bus.

Discuss Early British Election

LONDON (AP) — The victory of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative party in two special parliamentary elections revived talk today of an early national election.

The Conservative government's term expires in May 1960. Under the British political system, however, the government can call an election at any time.

Four Schoolboys Use Lunch Hour To Rob Postoffice

WYNNE, Ark. (AP)—Four schoolboys used their lunch hour Thursday to rob the local post office of $129.

Dep. Sheriff Ivy Ringgold said the four, between the ages of 12 and 15, entered the lobby of the post office while it was closed during the noon hour and broke open teller's window.

All four were taken into custody later after a search of pupils at the school and released to custody of their parents.

8 in Polo Farm Family Lose Everything as Home Burns

POLO—Eight members of a family were left homeless Thursday afternoon when fire destroyed their farm house eight miles southeast of Polo in Pine Creek Township, Ogle County.

The fire reportedly was started when the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunne, tenants on the farm owned by Ken Smith, set fire to clothing in a closet while playing with matches.

According to neighbors, the child slammed the closet door when she saw the clothing blazing and told another child: "Don't tell Daddy."

Mrs. Dunne heard the remark and investigated. She opened a window to let smoke out, creating a draft, and allowing the fire to spread.

A school bus driver saw the fire and told a neighbor girl to call the Polo fire department. The Dixon rural department also answered the call.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunne and their six children lost everything they owned with the exception of the clothing they were wearing. Members of the family now are staying with friends and relatives in Dixon and Polo.

Livestock Feeders Assn. Hears Report on Argentina

Argentina has less farm machinery today than it did 20 years ago, Harry Fisk, Lyndon implement dealer, told 500 persons attending the 10th annual banquet of the Lee-Whiteside Livestock Feeders Assn. Thursday evening in Loveland Community House.

H attributed the drop to a shortage of United States dollars with which to buy equipment and to a plentiful supply of cheap labor.

No Export to U.S.

Speaking and showing colored slides of a South American farm tour, Fisk said the dollar shortage is caused by Argentina's inability to export products to the United States, particularly its beef.

United States import restrictions and the low quality of meat, which is one of Argentina's main products, make it difficult for Argentina to obtain dollars with which to buy United States exports.

Cites Cattle Drive

Fisk said the machinery lack, prevalent in most of South America, is made up by use of cheap

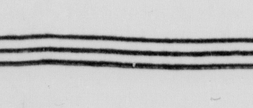
Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	14	1-9
Monday	Mark	2	1-12
Tuesday	Mark	3	1-5
Wednesday	Mark	5	25-34
Thursday	Mark	5	35-43
Friday	Mark	7	31-37
Saturday	Mark	10	46-52



How often, when Dad would finish reading the Bible, he would hold the Book gently in his hands and look out the window. . . .

I used to wonder what he saw—what vision against the setting sun!

And once I blurted the tremendous question: "Daddy, can you see God?"

He kept on gazing off into space, but a smile crossed his lips.

"No, son, a man doesn't see God! He feels God. And then he looks out his window and sees the world in a different light."

I grew up to discover what he meant. His Bible—his Church—his convictions have become mine. And when I look at the world . . . it's through Dad's window.

One day my son will grow up . . .

IRISH VISITOR — Mrs. Catherine Byrne, the lady Lord Mayor of Dublin, Ireland, is in the United States on a five-week visit.

Mt. Morris Brethren Church Preaching Mission Begins

MT. MORRIS — The Rev. Stewart B. Kauffman of Elgin, director of ministry and evangelism for the General Brotherhood Board, Church of the Brethren, will be the guest minister for the annual Holy Week Preaching Mission in Mt. Morris Church of the Brethren.

The mission will begin at the 10 a.m. worship service on Palm Sunday and will conclude with the service on Wednesday evening. The evening services, Sunday through Wednesday, will begin at 7:30 p.m., according to the announcement by the Rev. Carl E. Myers, pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Kauffman, a native of Reading, Pa., is recognized as one of the outstanding young churchmen of his denomination. Prior to assuming his present position in 1955, he served with distinction as a pastor and more recently as the executive secretary of the Eastern Region, the most densely populated area in the brotherhood, the Rev. Mr. Myers said.

While in the pastorate, he was actively engaged in developing a program for youth, served on the district board, was moderator of the district conference, and took an active part in the program of the Pennsylvania State Council of Churches.

At the present time, he is a director of the Central Department of Evangelism of the National Council of Churches, and is a director of the Department of Ministry of the ecumenical Protestant body.

Special music will be presented throughout the Preaching Mission by the Temple Choir, directed by Dale Henricks, the Youth Choir under the leadership of Mrs. Carl Myers, and the Chapel Choir led by Mrs. Ronald Fridley. The public is welcome.

DR. E. JERRY WALKER, pastor of St. James Methodist Church, Chicago, will speak at a Union Lenten Service at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Methodist Church. This will be the last such meeting this year. Dr. Walker, a former advertising man, conducts two radio programs and has written two books of Bible stories.

Will Dedicate Taft's Tower In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who wanted to be "Mr. President" but had to settle for "Mr. Republican," now is being honored as few men have.

An imposing new capital monument—a slim 100-foot pink marble bell tower—will be dedicated April 14 in his memory.

Taft's tower, with is 27-bell French carillon and a 10-foot bronze statue of the late senator, was built at a cost of about one million dollars donated by his friends and admirers.

Gripe Box

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richmond city employes are getting an opportunity to air their gripes. The personnel department is asking them to say, in unsigned replies, what they think of their boss, their work, their salaries and whether they are proud to work for the city. It is an experimental morale survey.

Unions Can Afford To Feed Jobless

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Copyright, 1959, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

There are no reliable estimates of the amount of money that unions collect as dues and by extortion in various guises, including the fantastic sale-tax of 40 cents a ton on soft coal and 70 cents a ton on hard coal which goes into a private fund controlled absolutely by John L. Lewis.

But, with ballyhoo for another disorderly and possibly insurrectionary "hunger march on Washington" now gathering force in the package-goods product of subsidized "labor" publicists, a cash dividend from these vast exchequers suggests itself as an alternative to such organized tumult. Propagandists of the union racket who purport to be objective journalists, though a little partial to "the labor side," would have us believe that there are five million men and women out of work in local areas which are carefully undefined. But the union movement could pay these five million each a cash role of $1,000 and send it to them by check obviating the hardship of a "march" and the sort of encampment which took place during the Hoover administration with loss of life and damage of the authority of government.

The total amount would be five billion.

Small Price

To liquidate the hoards of these unions might be a disturbing business. But if these five million are hungry the disturbance would be a small price to pay for the relief which would be afforded by five million checks for $1,000 each. After all, there is no excuse for the hoarding of so much wealth under the hands of tyrant bosses.

During the second war, Edward McGrady, a lifelong card holder in the monarchy of the late George Berry, of the Pressmen, said one billion a year was more likely a scant estimate of the union's gross income than an exaggeration. Most of this was milked out of the national treasury through inflationary wages for workers in the "war effort," few of whom had particular skill. McGrady was then an assistant secretary of labor so his authority was considerable. Union membership has declined thanks to the adoption of open-shop laws in 19 states, but any loss in revenues thus caused has been compensated by new devices. The "welfare" and jukebox rackets are examples.

William Burke, of Chicago, who served as general counsel of the welfare fund of the United Mine Workers, estimated in 1957 that this hoard had acquired $1,525,000,000 in 11 years starting in 1946. Burke had broken with Lewis on matters of law and principle and he alleged that about $300,000,000 had been dissipated by squandering and worse practises. Old, infirm miners were learning that they had no vested right whatever to old-age pensions and a federal court confirmed their gloomy apprehensions. The money belongs to a private charity of which Lewis and a female henchman, Miss Josephine Roche, constitute a majority of the stewardship. They may do as they please with it and individual petitions for pensions are decided in the local unions subject to no practical appeal. Miners who have annoyed the bosses of their locals, many of them lifelong satraps of Lewis, have little hope of receiving pensions.

Dave Dubinsky's union of garment workers has resources of $300 million. This is a low-wage industry and there is no need for so much money under Dubinsky's personal control.

The carpenters were able to squander $300,000 for an outrageous biography in tribute to William Hutcheson, the late president of this audacious racket, and, by implication to his son, Maurice, who has been indicted on a variety of charges and who inherited his job, as a crown prince would, by a provision which the old scoundrel wrote into the constitution. However, rich though it be, the Carpenters' is in relatively modest circumstances. The assets and resources of the Teamsters are incalculable but probably are greater than Lewis's.

There are uncounted mountains of real estate, securities and cash in banks at all levels of unionism from locals to the grand master fund of the AFL-CIO.

The "hunger march" ballyhoo complains that with great hoards of beef and other meat, grains and canned goods in storage, the government has tossed the hungry a stone. This is fraudulent publicity. The government has no duty to buy groceries for individuals. And if the government dumped all or most of that food onto the tables of those theoretical five million hungry, the farming and food industries would be shaken and all the taxpayers, including food merchants, thus denied their legitimate market, would be assessed to pay for food which the unions themselves are well able to pay for.

Duke, Duchess Of Windsor Get Sheriff's Aid

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, driving from Boulder City to Las Vegas, lost their way and were rescued by a sheriff's deputy.

The duke flagged down a sheriff's car and this conversation ensued:

"I say, officer, could you direct me to the right road to Las Vegas?"

"Sure. Say, you're the Duke of Windsor, aren't you?"

"Well, yes, I am. You see the duchess and I were en route to the Desert Inn and we're not certain of the road."

"That's all right, sir; just follow me."

They followed the officer's car 20 miles to the hotel entrance and were greeted by applause from a gathering of 150 in the lobby.

Not Any More

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Seldom Seen Road in southwest Delaware County will be better seen now, anyway. A new road sign giving its name has been put up.

Short Ribs

By Frank O'Neal

Ruth Millet

Almost everybody, except men who build houses to sell, agree that it takes a woman's touch to make the place homelike.

If you've spent any recent Sundays going through new houses you are sure to have seen evidence that a discouraging number of home builders refuse to admit that they need a woman's touch to make their houses as livable and attractive as they could be.

No woman in her right mind would let anyone build a house without a broom closet in the kitchen, put in three bathrooms without cabinet space for towels, omit an entrance hall so that the living room is turned into a hallway, or put a picture window facing the street instead of the garden.

And no woman of taste would let a man divide a house into a series of unrelated rooms by making every room and every floor covering a different theme—when the wise use of color alone can make a house seem spacious and inviting.

Most home building today is done by men, and there's nothing wrong with that. But any man who is building homes ought to have a woman consultant, with enough imagination to picture a family living, working, resting and entertaining in the home that is being built.

Sure, these houses that lack a woman's touch are selling. But they would sell faster and be adequate for a family longer if women had something to say about the floor plans and decoration.

And, oh the women who would thank the builders for letting a feminine touch give their homes the beauty and conveniences that mean so much to the lady of the house!

Hollywood Readies Big Oscar Show

By BOB THOMAS
Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Producer Jerry Wald assures that this year's Oscar festival will have something for everybody, except possibly devotees of low cut gowns.

"No cleavage this year," he announced.

"Edith Head, the designer, is coordinating this detail. She'll stand by with strips of tulle to add to gowns that show too much."

Best Food Forward

Hollywood will be putting its best foot forward. As ringmaster of the show, Wald began planning the 1959 event the day after last year's telecast. He promises that never will so many get so much as on Oscar night.

The April 6 extravaganza — on a Monday night, when theater audiences are slack — will be beamed through the U.S. by NBC-TV and shown later in 17 other countries. A hundred stars have donated their services, yet the reported cost of the whole show is $900,000. The movie industry picks up the tab, even buying up spot announcements, so non-movie ads won't intrude on Hollywood's spectacular.

Build Big 'Fun Centers' To Greet U.S. Tourists

By SAM DAWSON
Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Huge family fun centers are abuilding across the nation today to greet the hordes of touring Americans this summer.

They are joining the older forms of such entertainment—the more than 400 traditional amusement parks and the 5,000 small kiddie lands.

Attendance at these two amusement types is estimated to be more than 500 million a year.

Seek Millions

The new family recreation centers are hoping to attract from one million to four million visitors a year each, depending on length of their operating seasons.

Patterned in scope after Southern California's Disneyland, each of the new areas now open or rising emphasizes features to stimulate or restore some of the exciting and memorable aspects of local, regional and sometimes national historic lore.

They range in area from 80 to more than 100 acres, with initial investment of from 3 to 10 million dollars.

Across Nation

Included in the new group are fun centers near Boston, Denver, Dallas and Santa Monica, Calif. Here is what this sampling of the movement will offer:

A four million dollar Pleasure Island will open this summer on 80 acres at Wakefield, near Boston, and will stress yesteryear in New England.

Already open near Santa Monica is Pacific Ocean Park. The 10 million dollar development on 28 acres is devoted to a wide variety of marine themes.

Texas History

The Dallas recreation center is built around the theme: Texas under six flags. Its rides, shows and exhibits will cover the long history of the once largest state.

Magic Mountain, the Denver amusement center, will be set up to let visiting families participate vicariously in the Old West adventures of the U.S. cavalry, trappers and miners. It will lean heavily on the curiosity of generations brought up on novels, movies, radio and TV versions of frontier life.

Managements of family recreation centers say that theirs aren't the traditional amusement parks of ferris wheels and tunnels of love. They say the design and construction of the new style centers combine showmanship and dramatic talents, adding to the old type amusements new features that have nostalgic appeal to the oldsters and novelty appeal to the youngsters.

Sunday TV Informative, Entertaining

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Entertainment can be informing — and information can be entertaining. Look at some of the offerings on the television networks Sunday (all times Central Standard):

Psychoanalysts are forever interviewing people, so it should be informative—and entertaining—to hear an outstanding analyst, Dr. Karl Menninger, being the subject of an interview for a change: On "Wisdom" over NBC Sunday at 1 p.m.

At 1:30 on CBS Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts and Arthur Larson, former aide to President Eisenhower, are among those debating the question of "Can Democracy Meet the Space Age Challenge?"

Changing its time for this Sunday only, "Meet the Press" interviews poet Robert Frost at 3:30 on NBC. At the same hour on CBS Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic will demonstrate how composers through the ages have employed wit and satire in their works.

On "Small World" at 5 over CBS Edward R. Murrow leads Noel Coward, James Thurber and actress Siobhan McKenna into a discussion of wit and humor in the theater today. At the same hour on NBC "The Bell Telephone Science Series" repeats "The Unchained Goddess," showing how scientists study, analyze and forecast the weather.

So They Say

If democracy led by America loses in the only Asian country that was tutored in American democratic ways (the Philippines), where else in Asia can America hope to succeed?
—Philippines Vice President Macapagal.

It is utterly inexcusable that we don't pay them (foreign service officers) enough. . . . Today, a young man's idea of success is to be president of General Motors or something—not to be ambassador to Iraq.

'For Whom Bell Tolls' Best of Year

By CHARLES MERCER
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "For Whom the Bell Tolls," which "Playhouse 90" presented in two parts ending Thursday night on CBS-TV, was the finest drama of the current television season.

A. E. Hotchner's faithful dramatization of Ernest Hemingway's novel about a group of loyalist guerrillas in the Spanish civil war was brilliantly played by an outstanding cast under the imaginative direction of John Frankenheimer. Producer Fred Coe, deserves the gratitude of everyone interested in better TV drama.

2 Handicaps

Despite the handicap of appearing in two installments and being interrupted by too many strident commercials, seldom have actors developed their roles more compellingly and creatively on television than did the cast assembled for Hemingway's story of human bondage under imminent death.

Jason Robards Jr. and Maria Schell gave tremendous performances as they movingly portrayed a passionate love affair that ended in inevitable tragedy. As the indomitable Pilar, who refused to shun responsibility, Maureen Stapleton was magnificent. Eli Wallach as the irresponsible gypsy Rafael was equally fine.

"Most Memorable"

One of the most memorable performances was that of Nehemiah Persoff as Pablo, the guerrilla leader who wavered between courage and cowardice.

In the early part of the first episode, the literal - minded may have been troubled by the phrasing with which Hemingway suggested the Spanish language. As the drama progressed, however, the dignity of language underscored the beauty of the work.

Rarely Achieved

The final battle scene of the taped production was infused with a clarity and authenticity rarely achieved in the medium.

There was nothing dated about "For Whom The Bell Tolls." It made a powerful dramatic statement of man's hope and man's fate in the universal terms of love and war, courage and cowardice.

This production should be presented again on CBS without commercials or a break of seven days.

The first permanent annual Rose Bowl football game was held in 1916. Today, more peaple read a newspaper in one day than attend football games in an entire year.

The Doctor Says

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Each year I receive a great many inquiries about hardening of the arteries.

Perhaps the first question which comes to mind is whether hardening of the arteries, or arteriosclerosis, is becoming more common.

Probably it is, but this is more likely the result of the facts that far fewer people die young from such diseases as pneumonia, diphtheria or typhoid. Therefore, more of us reach an age when the walls of our arteries have become somewhat hardened and may be producing symptoms.

The process of the arteries becoming less elastic starts early in life, but it is unusual to have symptoms from it until the middle or later years.

Just what symptoms will be caused from arteriosclerosis depends on which arteries are affected (since the process is not even in all of them), and to what degree the blood flow through them is lessened by the deposits of calcium or fatty substance in their walls.

The increased hardness of the arteries, which lessens the flow of blood, is likely to be so gradual that there is no way of detecting it until it has been developing a long time.

The arteries do not become hardened at the same rate of speed in one part of the body as they do in another. For example, the walls of the arteries in the legs may become thick, hard and inelastic, while those supplying the abdominal organs or the arms are still normal and soft.

The big question today relates to the deposits of the fatlike substances in the walls of the arteries, whether this can be prevented or slowed by changes in the diet, and whether there are any methods of removing all or part of these deposits once they have occurred.

These questions have been the subject of an enormous amount of research and controversy.

It seems quite clear that a considerable number of those who develop these deposits of fat (atherosclerosis) have more than the usual amount of these substances in their blood. But it is not entirely clear why this occurs in some and not in others, and whether it can be directly influenced by the diet.

The finger or suspicion now points toward the total fat content of the diet and the kind, or quality, of the fat in it.

But there are many unsolved problems in this field and what changes, if any, we should make in our dietary habits is not yet entirely clear.

Jacqueline Ruppert Is Bride

Ronald Mocks Have Sterling As First Home

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mock have 1305 Third Ave., Sterling, as their first address. Mrs. Mock is the former Jacqueline Ruppert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruppert, Dixon. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mock, are of Rt. 3, Sterling.

Snapdragons, ferns, and palms were used in decorating St. John's Lutheran church, Sterling, for the March 14, candlelight wedding. Rev. T. Bolton, Milledgeville, officiated at the evening, double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Long, was nuptial soloist and Grayson Brottmiller, organist. Both are from Sterling.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore Chantilly lace over satin. The dress had a long train, and a scalloped yoke with a high neckline, piped in sequins and pearls. A crown of pearls and sequins held the bride's fingertip veil that was edged in chantilly lace. Dainty pearl earrings were a gift from the bridegroom.

Carries Lace Hankie

The bride's something old was a lace hankie that had belonged to her great grandmother; blue was a garter and borrowed, a white Bible. She wore a penny in her shoe. The bride carried white orchids and hyacinth blossoms.

Mrs. Don Pinegar, Dixon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Carol Mock, Sterling, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaid.

Their gowns were of lilac nylon over taffeta and they had colonial style bouquets of purple violets and hyacinth blossoms. Pearl necklaces were gifts from the bride.

Jim Loos, Sterling, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and George Yingling, Chadwick, was groomsman. Ushering was done by Robert Jones, Dixon, and Larry Reap, Polo, cousin of the bridegroom, who also served as candle lighters.

Sabra Ruppert, Dixon, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy frock and a violet headband. Her gift from the bride was a locket and she carried a white crocheted basket of violet petals.

The bride's mother wore a light gray wool suit with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore pink accessories with her dusty rose lace dress. Their corsages were carnations with hyacinths.

Church Reception

A reception was held in the church basement, with Misses Jody Bally, Shelba Martin and Dorothy Beauseigneur, Dixon, in charge of the gifts; Miss Nancy Boyungs, Sterling, had the guest book; Mrs. Dick Poffenberger, Polo, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Morris Reed, Dixon, served punch. The bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Robert Frankfather, Milledgeville, and Mrs. Monroe Law, Sterling; served the five tiered cake.

For traveling the bride wore a blue suit. A graduate of Dixon High School, with the class of 1956, she is employed by the Dixon National Bank.

Ronald received his education in Milledgeville, graduating in 1954. He served in the navy, 18 months of which was spent in Hawaii. At the present time he is engaged in farming with his father.

Honor Bride

Among the pre-nuptial parties honoring the bride was a miscellaneous shower, in Loveland Community House, with Mrs. Don Pinegar as hostess. A kitchen shower, in Sterling, and a dinner at Lincoln Manor, given by fellow employees of the bank were among other parties.

MR. AND MRS. MOCK

Columnist Tells Woes of Common Cold Miseries

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Here's a woman's-eye view of what is wrong with the world, written behind a barricade of pill bottles, tissues and cough medicine.

Scientists should stop trying to conquer outer space until they succeed in conquering the common cold.

In this age of modern miracles, why hasn't some genius come up with a miracle cold pill? This, I am sure, would be of far more benefit to suffering humanity than a moon satellite.

Still Sneezing

We have push-button kitchens, no-iron clothes, jet airplanes and guided missiles, yet half the world's population is still sneezing.

My outlook may be slightly jaundiced on account of having been unduly exposed for the last few days to a steady barrage of television commercials running something like this:

"At the first sneeze, take miracle sniffle-eeze . . ."

"For all cold ills, take our jet-propelled pills . . ."

"Chase cold germs away the modern way . . ."

"Cold miseries stop with supercharged glop . . ."

Cold, Hard Facts

The cold, hard facts are that even in the current space age, atomic scientists and hard-working housewives alike may still be felled by the old-fashioned common cold, and there's precious little they can do about it that's different from what grandma used to do.

I've been consuming quantities of the newest miracle pills as duly prescribed by a doctor, but I'm still in bed drinking hot lemonade, like grandma used to do.

Girl Scouts Send News Of Badge Work, Visits To Dixon Businesses

Girl Scout Activities have been many in Dixon the past few weeks. The young women are indeed busy now with the sale of Girl Scout Cookies. Sales began March 16, and continue until March 25.

Several happenings of the scouts were printed during Girl Scout week, March 8 to 14. Other troops have reported in the past few days.

Members of Troop 11, under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Knelson and Mrs. Norman Scott, have completed their Dancer badge work. They are busy completing requirements for two other badges, Horsewoman and My Community.

The girls had an interesting trip to the Babson Horse Farm, in early fall, and several trips to Dickey's Stable. Linda Lightner allowed the troop the use of her horse for their badge preparations.

Troop 11 had a scramble supper, in October, at Camp Ralston and were the guests of Mrs. John Harvey's and Mrs. Orville LeGore's troop for a party in November. They were guests of Mrs. Norman W. Dietrich's troop recently when Mrs. Gordon Brantley lectured on crystal and china.

Field Trip

The members had an interesting field trip to study historical markers in the vicinity.

Community services given were to distribute posters for the Antique and Hobby Show also to make table decorations and help serve the chili supper for the benefit of the Scout Round-Up. They made corsages to present to their mothers at Christmas.

As the study of My Community was recommended this year by the National Girl Scout organization, girls from the seventh grade scout troop of Washington School visited Dixon Public Hospital and Lawton's Dairy during January.

Recently they visited Borden's Milk Factory and the Freeman Shoe Factory, with the eighth grade scout troop from Madison School.

About Photography

Another inter-troop meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Clinton Utter. George Henderson gave a talk and demonstration on photography.

An interesting and worthwhile activity were the scrapbooks containing articles and pictures of community interests that were made by Madison Scout Troop. The girls told how they obtained information for the articles. The Washington troop plans to make a similar book.

Plans are being made to visit places of historical interest this spring.

AT PRESS DINNER—Among the 50 press representatives and Northern Illinois Gas Company officials who attended a dinner Thursday night in the Nachusa House were (seated) Ed Boyd, Dixon, new gas company district manager for the Rock River district; Preston Grandon, publisher of The Sterling Gazette; Marvin Chandler, the gas company president, and (standing) Danny Terry, editor of The Tri-County Press, Polo. —Telegraph Photo

Transportation, Storage Remain Gas Industry Woes

Transportation and storage of natural gas still are the main problems of the gas industry, Marvin Chandler, president of Northern Illinois Gas Company, told a group of 50 press representatives and company officials Thursday night.

Chandler spoke at a company-sponsored press dinner in the Nachusa House. Guests included representatives from the Rock River district of the company.

Supply Is Good

The supply of gas at the wells is good, Chandler reported. He said that last year more new gas was found than was consumed. Getting the gas from the well to the consumers remains the big problem, he said.

He said his firm will spend $13.5-million this year to connect with a new pipeline which now ends at East Dubuque.

But Chandler said underground storage also is helping to solve the problem. The company for several years has stored gas underground near Kankakee, and now is testing a similar facility near Troy Grove.

Underground storage is possible where a vast dome of solid rock lies above porus rock which will absorb natural gas. The gas is pumped into the rock when consumption of gas is low, and taken out when the demand is high.

Appears Successful

The Troy Grove dome tests appear to be successful, Chandler said. The company now has pumped more than a billion cubic feet of gas into the dome, and will continue this operation for two or three months. Large scale withdrawal tests are expected next winter.

Chandler said the company will have $3.5-million invested in the Troy Grove project by next fall, and that gas stored there should supply 80,000 consumers.

Train's Mail Car Burns, Estimate Damage $50,000

ODELL, Ill. (AP) — A mail and baggage car of a Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad train burned Thursday night, causing an estimated $50,000 damage. Firemen and railroad workers succeeded in saving most of the mail.

Only One Coach

There was only one passenger coach on the seven-car Chicago-Springfield train. An Odell fireman suffered a hand laceration in attempting to throw a bag of third class mail from the train.

A postal investigator, who estimated damage, theorized the blaze might have been caused from a burning cigarette accidentally dropped in or near a mail bag when the car was being loaded in Chicago. He described the car as a total loss.

Backed Into Odell

The fire was discovered shortly after the train passed through Odell. The train was backed into Odell, northeast of Pontiac, and firemen from both communities fought the blaze for nearly three hours.

The six undamaged cars were sent to Springfield early today.

Most of the contents included telephone directories, periodicals parcel post and other third and fourth class mail. Some of it was charred and water damaged. The rest was heaved onto a rail siding by firemen.

the northwestern section has caused evacuation of several families and, the weather bureau said, foreshadows floods along the Mississippi River.

The bureau blamed the swollen streams on melting snow caused by warm weather.

On Pecatonica

The weather bureau late Thursday said particularly high flood waters were indicated on the Pecatonica, with a 19 or 20-foot stage —7 feet above flood—expected at Freeport.

Observers in Freeport said the Pecatonica was rolling a little below flood stage Thursday night, with no perceptible increase or decrease in level.

Meanwhile small tributaries of the Pecatonica overflowed minor roads 1½ miles and eight miles south of Freeport.

Rockford Evacuation

A more serious flood brought the evacuation of several families from houses in a low-lying area on the north west side of Rockford, Thursday evening. The basements of the houses were flooded by Kent Creek, a tributary of the Rock River.

However the Winnebago County sheriff's office reported the level of flood water in the houses had dropped about six inches by late Thursday night.

A state highway, Route 73, was reported blocked Thursday night by water from the Plum River about four miles north of Mt. Carroll.

The weather bureau station in Moline said the high water forecast includes generally the Mississippi and its tributaries between Guttenberg and Muscatine, Iowa, and the Rock River in Illinois.

"Take Precaution"

"All interests" along these streams, the bureau said, "are advised to take immediate precaution against at least moderate flooding."

The weather bureau said specific time warnings for flood buildups could not be calculated.

Murder Trial Jury Picking Goes Slowly

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Selection of a jury to hear the love triangle murder case against Minnie B. (Connie) Nicholas appeared certain today to go into the second week of her trial.

Painstaking questioning by the state and defense on prospective jurors' views on capital punishment, self-defense and preconceived opinions exhausted the special venire of 200 Thursday.

Judge Thomas J. Faulconer ordered a new special venire of 175 drawn, with 75 summoned for Monday, 50 for Wednesday and 50 for the following Monday.

The state contends the attractive divorcee planned the shooting of her married sweetheart, drug firm executive Forrest Teel, when he jilted her for a new girl friend. Mrs. Nicholas has said her revolver fired accidentally as she tried to defend herself from a "roughing up."

Questioning in the first four days of the trial eliminated all but 3 of the 12 members of the regular jury for the current term of court, and also used up the 200 names on the special venire.

Twenty-eight of the 200 did not show up when their names were called. Faulconer ordered sheriff's deputies to bring all of these they could find into court today.

Fifteen prospective jurors were removed by state challenges Thursday when they said they could not vote for a death sentence. The state now has removed 24 for this reason.

Youngsters Can't Drive Any More

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A law which raised a storm of protest two years ago by permitting youngsters 14 and 15 to operate motor scooters without licenses has been wiped off the books with a stroke of Gov. Stratton's pen.

Stratton Thursday signed the repealer which immediately restored the regulation banning scooter privileges for youths 14 and 15, and allowing those 16 and 17 to drive only with parental consent.

One Day After Vote

The signing came one day after the Senate completed legislative action on the repeal measure by passing it 47-0. In announcing his action, Stratton's office noted that operators 14 and 15 years of age "as a class, are incapable of safely operating those vehicles."

A spokesman for Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier applauded Stratton's decision, and said that the secretary would further oppose any new legislation to restore these privileges on a restricted basis.

Bills Pending

Several bills are pending before the Illinois Legislature to create a special licensing system for the 14 and 15-year-old operators.

The law repealed Thursday has been described as a "legislative accident" because of its mysterious passage in the closing days of the 1957 session. It won approval as a seemingly innocent provision of a routine omnibus bill.

labor and cited a cattle drive as an example.

Cattle, he said, are driven to market by gauchos, or cowboys, in trail drives similar to those used in the American west of a century ago.

Argentine cattle, he continued, are fattened on grass, producing a very lean dry beef.

During his trip in January he visited many farms, including those raising dairy cattle and poultry, with an escort of United States agricultural attaches arranged by Rep. Leo Allen (R-Ill).

Highlight

Fisk commented that the highlight of his trip was a visit with Herman Rojas, a second cousin of the Chile president. Rojas, a former student at Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind., had visited in Fisk's home in 1947.

John Almburg, livestock market commentator, Chicago Live Stock Exchange, was master of ceremonies for the program which included "The Dizzy Dolls," LaSalle.

him." He described his feeling toward Post as "hatred at first sight."

Gave That Motive

Payne gave that motive for the kidnapping in a weird note addressed to Gov. Cecil H. Underwood of West Virginia. The note threatened torture and death to the children if Payne's demand for Post's release was not met.

Payne left the note in the Baldwin home when he drove off in the family car with Mrs. Baldwin and Susan, 5; Danny, 7, and Kenneth, 10. The husband and father, John H. Baldwin, 30, was left behind, tied and gagged.

Captives Unharmed

Despite the threats in his macabre note, Payne did not harm his captives. "I couldn't have killed them after I got to know them," he said later.

Arrest Polo Man For Drunk Driving

Ronald Ray Kalas, Polo, Thursday night was arrested on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

Dixon police officers Edward Trotter and Richard Dusing said Kalas drove east on Bradshaw Street to the end of the street, then ran into an embankment.

He is scheduled to appear in Lee County Court Monday.

The Telegraph Thursday incorrectly reported the driver's license of Richard Pitman, 523 Nachusa Ave., had been revoked by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier, because of a drunk driving conviction. Actually the license was revoked because of three moving traffic violations.

Clinch said two caravans of unemployed St. Louis brewery workers did visit Peru "as job applicants, not strike breakers," at his brewery.

Ashton Schools Clothing Drive

Pupils to Aid in Drive For Clothes for Needy

ASHTON — School children of Ashton Community Unit District No. 275 will begin Monday to bring bundles of used clothing to school during World Clothing Week.

According to Superintendent of Schools Robert H. Thayer, the drive will continue through Friday and is part of a nation-wide campaign to raise enough used clothing, shoes and bedding to clothe one million orphaned and needy children and adults in the United States and overseas.

World Clothing Week is conducted by the schools in cooperation with the Christian Children's Fund, Inc., an international charitable organization which assists orphans and other needy children in the United States and thirty-six countries overseas.

Thayer Comments

Supt. Thayer had this to say when announcing the drive; "We expect World Clothing Week to be one of the finest service projects ever conducted by our schools. The clothing collected is used in handicapped areas of America by C.C.F. to help needy children — some of whom can't even attend school regularly because they have no coat or shoes.

"It goes to aid orphans and other needy children and adults in the United States and overseas. Also, clothing and bedding is distributed during disaster emergency situations, such as occasioned by floods, tornadoes, or earthquakes. Every student has been given literature to take home explaining the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents and friends."

Vital Need

Thayer continued, "The Christian Children's Fund reports that good used clothing is one of the most vital needs of children and adults the world over.

"At the same time our own young people will be learning a valuable lesson in humanity and experience the joy that comes with sharing with those less fortunate. I hope the citizens of our community will get behind the schools in this effort. Send all types of wearable infants, children's and adult clothing and shoes to school during World Clothing Week."

Aids Needy Children

Since 1938 the Christian Children's Fund, Inc., has been aiding needy children. Today, it assists more than 23,000 orphans in 288 orphanages in 37 countries.

In addition to the United States, C.C.F. operates its programs in Africa, Austria, Belgium, Bolivia, Borneo, Brazil, Burma, Canada, Chile, England, Finland, France, Greece, Hong Kong, India, Indochina, Indonesia, Iran, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Jordan, Korea, Lapland, Lebanon, Macao, Malaya, Mexico, Okinawa, Pakistan, Philippines, Puerto Rico, Syria, Taiwan (Formosa), Viet Nam, and West Germany, and on many American Indian Reservations.

World Clothing Week is administered without reference to race, creed or national origin of those assisted.

State Prep Quarterfinals on Tap Today

A Second Glance

With GEORGE BAIREY

Madison's Fighting Trojans . . .

THE MADISON TROJANS, full of surprises, came up with a new one today when their hometown coach, Buddy Mueller, attempted to explain why unsung Madison (with its mediocre record) still is in the running now that the state championships have eliminated all but eight teams.

It appears that the success story all started with a two-man fist fight between a couple squad members a couple months back. One boy, Bobby Price, a 6-1 junior, suffered a broken jaw while the other pugalistic protagonist, Ed Walker, a 6-3 sophomore, drew a suspension from the team. . .

Mueller says it was all for the best, getting the matter into the open, and now both boys have returned to action and are regulars, pulling the team together even faster than anticipated. . .

You shouldn't argue with success, but you surely can't advise instigating a squad brawl to instill a little team play. . .

Madison kicked off the quarterfinal round games today, meeting Waukegan in a 1:15 p.m. game. . .

AMBOY'S SPORTSMAN'S CLUB—snowed out last Sunday of its first attempt to hold a fox hunt this season—will try again Sunday afternoon. Same ground rules . . . meet at 1 p.m. at 10 S. East Ave. in Amboy, no rifles, just shotguns, transportation furnished if needed, open to the public, and a lunch will be served by the club after the hunt. . .

* * *

A PAIR OF BASKETBALL BANQUETS were held this week, one in Walnut and one in Oregon . . . Walnut's rangy junior starters, 6-5 Phil LaRussa and 6-3 Roger James were named co-captains for next season . . . in Oregon, versatile Skip Reed received the Hawks' outstanding athlete of the year award . . . Reed was a three-letter man in football and basketball. . .

Fight Spurred Madison Quint

CHAMPAIGN (AP)—Unbeaten Rantoul and often beaten Madison, two of the lesser rated teams who made the quarterfinals of the Illinois high school basketball tournament, were chief subjects of conversation today.

Rantoul having won 32 straight, not only had to worry about West Aurora and Blackhawk ace Bill Small but was faced with the task of fighting the flu bug.

Madison, carrying a mediocre record of 16-11, began picking up backers as its story of inner conflict unfolded.

Evenly-Matched Field

Despite these developments one of the most evenly matched quarter-final rounds in the history of the state tournament was ready to be launched today.

Waukegan (20-5) met Madison (16-11) in the first game and Springfield (30-1), the fourth ranked team in the state, was to face Peoria Central (27-3) in the second session. West Aurora (20-6) and Rantoul (32-0) were to open the evening session with Galesburg (27-1), the state's No. 1 team, meeting Herrin (31-1), the second ranked team in the quarterfinal finale.

It was still touch and go with Rantoul early today as to whether Larry Harris would play. Harris has been down with the flu and coach Bob Kidd was administering doses of vitamin C late Thursday night to keep his team intact. Aside from Harris, a regular playmaker, Kidd was worried about several other players who were nursing minor colds and sore throats.

Madison, expected to be knocked out of regional play let alone win sectional honors and advance past Centralia in first round play, was being eyed with caution.

Suffers Fractured Jaw

Actually, the Trojans played much of the year without Bob Price and Ed Walker—a big reason for their poor record. Early in the season Price suffered a fractured jaw when he and Walker got into a scrap. Walker was placed on probation.

The two made up and Walker was re-instated before regional play started. Madison proceeded to knock off third-ranked Alton, 62-60, in double overtime and then defeated Edwardsville and Wood River to win the Wood River regional. The Trojans clipped Jerseyville, 61-59, in sectional play then kayoed Litchfield for good measure. The height of Madison's success came with a first round triumph over Centralia, 83-69.

In as much as Waukegan defeated defending champion Marshall, 63-62, and Madison appears to be the tournament team of destiny, the opening game of quarterfinal play is only an example of what is in store for prep basketball enthusiasts this year.

Aside from the fact the No. 3 and 4 teams meet in the second game, Peoria Central will exhibit 6-10 Walt Girard who has averaged 21.7 points and hauled down 307 rebounds. Springfield will counter with 6-7 Tom Cole and one of the better defensive teams in the state. The Senators don't shoot often, but when they do, they hit.

Rantoul Worried About Flu

Although Rantoul is worried about the flu bug with reason, West Aurora coach Dick Dorsey is afraid that the epidemic might cripple his team.

"We are in good shape right now," said Dorsey, "and we need to stay that way for the tournament. This flu really worries me because it is going in full in our area.

The Blackhawks, incidentally, could wind up with the tournament's top scorer if they get by Rantoul. Small leads all players reaching the quarterfinals with 28 points and he previously has had the opportunity of firing at the Illini gym baskets.

Ultimate Winner

The fourth and final game tonight could produce the ultimate winner. Both Herrin and Galesburg are about equal in height. Gene Turni, 6-6, is Herrin's king pin while Galesburg, a team with sufficient scoring balance, has 6-6 Bumpy Nixon to cope with Turni.

However, Galesburg must fight off a double jinx. Only five teams in tournament history dating back to 1908, came in as favorites, and went home as champions.

Galesburg also is making its 17th appearance in the finals but has won only once before and that was in 1913. The Silver Streaks finished second in 1931 but haven't been able to make the championship game in nine attempts since, although they were favored several times.

If tournament experience means anything, West Aurora, Springfield and Herrin should have the best of it. All three played in the finals last year and Herrin won the championship in 1957.

Members of '57 Champions

Herrin's Ron Ward, Ken Doughty, Gerry Wharton and Terry Brandon—all starters this year—were members of the 1957 champions.

However, there is one thing that is true of the Illinois state finals and that is — past records don't mean much.

In NIT Championship Game

Braves, St. John's Tangle

NEW YORK (AP)—Bradley was made the early favorite today to beat St. Johns of New York in their Saturday afternoon championship game of the National Invitational Basketball Tournament.

The top-seeded Braves, fourth ranked nationally, and the New York Redmen reached the final by whipping NYU and Providence, respectively, in Thursday night's semifinals before a sellout 18,496 at Madison Square Garden.

Bradley blew a 10-point lead in the second half, but pulled out a 59-57 squeaker over NYU. St. Johns routed Providence, the cinderella team of the tourney, 76-55.

Bradley holds a regular season 71-66 victory over St. Johns and it is primarily on this basis that the Braves are favored to repeat their 1957 victory in the NIT final.

As Chuck Orsborn, Bradley coach, put it "We know what St. Johns is all about."

Joe Lapchick, St. Johns coach, declared "Bradley looks like a giant." Bobby Joe Mason and Joe Billy McDade helped the Braves win the 1957 net title and this is another factor in making Bradley the choice.

NYU fought from behind all the way after Bradley got off to a quick 9-0 lead. Mike Owens was high for Bradley with 16 points, but it was McDade's good defensive job on NYU's Tom Sanders that drew praise from Orsborn. "That hook shot of his that broke the tie was a thing of beauty." Altogether McDade finished with 10 points, nine rebounds and two assists. Russ Cunningham wound up with 18 points, 15 in the last half.

Providence made a gallant stand in the first half, rallying to take the lead twice at 16-15 and 18-17 and to tie twice at 20-20 and 22-22, but then the witching hour struck. A free throw and basket by Dick Engert broke the tie. Providence never threatened again.

Big Lou Roethel, with 22 points sparked St. Johns. Lennie Wilkens starred for Providence with 17 points.

The Bradley-St. Johns game will be nationally televised (NBC). NYU and Providence will play for third place.

Ron Delany To Compete After All

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ron Delany, the world's fastest indoor miler, has changed his mind again. He will compete in the Knights of Columbus track meet here tonight.

And he will be running against Istvan Rozsavolgyi of Hungary. The Irish flash had to come from behind in the final lap in New York two weeks ago to defeat the Hungarian in the record time of 4:01.4.

Delany had entered the meet here and was being billed as the feature attraction. Wednesday he announced he would not compete because of the pressure of his studies at Villanova. Meet officials stormed and talked of asking for Delany's suspension.

However, he telephoned from Miami, Fla., Thursday night and told J. L. (Jake) Leicht, meet director:

"I just want to come in quietly and run my race. Yes, I have my plane ticket."

Peter Close of St. John's, who paced Delany and Rozsavolgyi in the record-breaking mile, will also run in tonight's mile.

Another event, the two mile run, will get feature treatment with a trio of swift distance runners in the spotlight.

They are Al Lawrence of the University of Houston, little Max Truex of Southern California and Hungary's Laszlo Tabori.

Lawrence set the world indoor record of 8:56.8 two weeks ago, two night later in Milwaukee, Truex whipped Lawrence and to do it, he ran the second fastest two-mile on record (8:47.2). Tabori won the event here in 1957, and, without any competition, turned in a good 8:54.6 clocking.

The three will be taking aim at Greg Rice's 16-year-old meet mark of 8:51.

Florida Rain Causes Shift Of Games

By The Associated Press

The Cincinnati Reds and Los Angeles Dodgers finally will get together tonight for their hastily scheduled exhibition game after spending Friday playing hide-and-seek, thanks to the weatherman.

The two teams will meet in Havana's Gran Stadium. The will play again in Gran Stadium, Saturday instead of Tampa, as originally scheduled.

The fifth straight day of rain on Florida's Gulf Coast caused the sudden shift. The Reds originally were slated to meet St. Louis at St. Petersburg Thursday and the Dodgers to entertain Baltimore at Sarasota. Rain washed out these games.

The Phillies - Detroit, Yankees-Milwaukee, Pittsburgh-Kansas City and Washington - Chicago White Sox also were rained out of Florida games Thursday.

In Arizona Tom Brewer and Murray Wall combined for a 2-1 Boston Red Sox victory over the Chicago Cubs. The pair allowed the Cubs six hits, one Bobby Thompson's home run.

Dave Hillman just missed being the first pitcher to go nine innings this spring. He allowed Boston only four hits and two walks in eight innings.

The San Francisco Giants belted five home runs to outslug the Cleveland Indians, 9-6. Giants' shortstop Andre Rodgers hit two as part of a perfect day at the plate.

For Mythical Dixon Championship

Merchants Maul State School Five

If there was any doubt as to the top Dixon area independent basketball team before Thursday night's game between the Dixon Merchants and the Dixon State School, all doubt was certainly resolved after the game.

For the second time this season, the Merchants — playoff winners in the Sterling YMCA League — whipped State School, the Dixon Church League's undefeated standard-bearer. The score was 74-55.

For a period, the score was close. At the end of the first quarter, the score was tied, 13-13, thanks mostly to Joe Franco's long, one-handed push shots for the Merchants.

But then during the second quarter and the rest of the game, the Merchants opened up and romped to the win. Bob Hill, a 1957 Dixon High School grad, and Doug Eybee started to hit for the Merchants and they were off to the races.

Eybee was high scorer for the evening with 25 points and Hill close behind with 24. Hill hit 11 field goals, mostly on jump shots from outside the State School zone, and Eybee added 10 more buckets, capitalizing on driving hook shots.

Franco had 19 points for the Merchants.

The winners—after the first period—held period leads of 30-24 and 50-34.

Harley Christofferson and Stan Dunphy hit double figures for the losers, Christofferson with 17 and Dunphy with 11.

Box score (baskets, free throws, total points):

DIXON MERCHANTS (74) — Franco, 7-5—19; Santos, C., 1-1—3; Hawks, 0-1—1; Santos, G., 0-1—1; Santos, R., 0-1—1; Hill, 11-2—24; Jones, 0-0—0; Eybee, 10-5—25.

STATE SCHOOL (55) — Dyche, 4-0—8; Christofferson, 8-1—17; Hepner, 0-1—1; Dunphy, 3-5—11; Pyse, 0-0—0; Anderson, 1-1—3; Gorham, 0-0—0; Gallentine, 2-2—6; Bland, 4-1—9.

Louisville Battles W. Virginia Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The home court advantage is expected to do more for Louisville than Oscar Robertson for Cincinnati, Jerry West for West Virginia, or a bear-hug defense for California in the NCAA basketball showdown opening at massive Freedom Hall tonight.

Louisville (19-10) meets West Virginia (28-4) in the semifinal opener followed by Cincinnati (25-3) vs. California (23-4).

The winners play for college basketball's tastiest plumb Saturday at 10 p.m., following a consolation game between tonight's losers. Capacity crowds of about 18,500 will attend each session.

Despite the general feeling among the coaching fraternity that the home court assist will be minimized by tournament pressure, the odds-makers have made the homestanding Cardinals the favorite.

This although Louisville has the poorest record of the semifinalists, has no one to match All-Americas Robertson and West, and has a defense that's hit-and-miss compared to California's "make-'em-for-everything" style.

All four teams were in top shape after final workouts with only Cincinnati due to play short-handed. Mike Mendenhall, regular backcourt man, is ineligible for the NCAA competition as a four-year player.

This didn't stop George Smith's Bearcats from spilling top-ranked Kansas State, 85-75, in the Midwest regional final at Lawrence, Kan., last weekend. Cincinnati, champion of the Missouri Valley Conference, scored its other Lawrence victory over TCU, 77-73.

Louisville, which lost seven of its first 12 games, created the biggest stir when, after bouncing Eastern Kentucky in the first round, it blasted defending champion Kentucky ,76-61, and powerful Michigan State, 88-81, to win the Mideast regional.

Norman Admits Detroit Is Improved

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Detroit Tiger Manager Bill Norman is making sure he's not going to make the same mistake his predecessor, Jack Tighe, made last year.

A year ago at this time, Tighe, breathing optimism, proclaimed the Tigers 50 per cent improved and predicted they would catch the Yankees. Less than three months later, the Tigers were in last place and Tighe was replaced by Norman.

No Flag Fever

If Norman has caught the flag fever this year, there are no symptoms. On the contrary, he becomes slightly annoyed whenever the word pennant is mentioned in connection with his club.

"Let's face facts," Norman said. "The Tigers finished fifth last year, only four games out of seventh. You can't talk about being a contender until you've become a solid first division club.

"Sure, we improved," Norman added, "and I am optimistic about finishing in the first division. But we've got our work cut out for us. Don't forget, the other clubs have improved, too."

Strong Reliefers

The trade with Cleveland that brought relief pitchers Ray Narleski and Don Mossi will strengthen the staff, Norman said, "and the trade with Washington that landed third baseman Eddie Yost and shortstop Rocky Bridges will help the club defensively."

Norman's pride and joy is his pitching, led by starters, Jim Bunning, Frank Lary, Paul Foytack and Billy Hoeft. Herm Wehmeier and George Susce will be spot starters and Tom Morgan will be the early reliever. Lefthander Pete Burnside, acquired from San Francisco, has made a good impression.

"I've got good pitching," said Norman, "but I lack power and don't have the fastest team in the world. I'd also like to improve my bench. Ossie Alvarez can play second and Coot Veal can play short. I'm experimenting with Larry Osborne, at first base, in the outfield and at third."

London Not Awed by Champ

LONDON (AP)—If Brian London is scared — or even awed — at the thought of meeting world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, he doesn't show it.

The former British heavyweight champion meets Patterson in a world title fight in Las Vegas, Nev., April 21. This one has been billed as a tuneup for Patterson for Ingmar Johansson of Sweden in New York probably June 23.

London said he planned to leave for the United States next week to get "acclimatized."

"I never have seen Patterson except on films," he admitted. "But I am looking forward to the fight."

The local folks aren't too enthused over London's chances and one of the top bookmakers in England wasted no time in making Patterson a 10-1 favorite.

Danville Girl Okay After Heart Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) — Young Sandra Trinkle, who through the aid of 29 of her Danville neighbors underwent delicate heart surgery, was reported in satisfactory condition today despite post-operative complications.

Doctors at the University of Illinois Hospital said the 10-year-old girl's kidneys were malfunctioning.

Sandra underwent surgery to correct an abnormal narrowness in the aorta, the largest blood vessel leading from the heart.

A busload of 29 Danville residents arrived that morning to voluntarily donate blood for use in a heart-lung machine used in the operation.

Sandra still was in an oxygen tent today and was being fed by tube. Urology specialists said they hoped careful management of fluid and food intake will improve her condition.

'New Discovery—Instant Silence'

Hates Rock 'n' Roll, Buys 15 Minutes Radio Silence

RIPLEY, Tenn. (AP) — A business man who doesn't like rock 'n roll music bought 15 minutes of radio time Thursday and devoted almost all of it to silence.

James W. Porter began his quarter-hour on station WTRB by shattering several records and then proposing a "National Can the Racket League." Announced Porter:

"Friends, are you tense, nervous, jittery? Chances are you are overturned. You may have tried other stations without success, but now we offer you an amazing new discovery—instant silence."

Thirteen minutes of silence followed except for two breaks to reassure listeners their radios didn't need repair.

John Stewart, WTRB manager, said telephone callers were 100 per cent against the silence.

1 Vote Makes Him Seek Mayor Post At 3,527-1 Odds

CHICAGO (AP) — One vote in a primary election, it appears, has transformed an electrician into a candidate for mayor of suburban Highland Park.

In the March 3 primary Mayor Robert S. Cushman, a lawyer, got 3,527 votes for re-election. There was one write-in vote, for Daniel A. Vetter, the electrician who was not a candidate.

Vetter Thursday filed a statement of candidacy that will put him on the ballot in the April 21 general election. Apparently, the odds against Vetter are 3,527 to 1.

Beam Radar Signal Off Planet Venus

WESTFORD, Mass. (AP) — An 84-foot dish antenna here has beamed a radar signal 28 million miles to the planet Venus and caught its echo five minutes later.

The 56-million-mile round trip transmission, in February 1958, consumed 10 cents worth of electricity for a 300-kilowatt signal but analyzing the data that came back took nearly half a billion calculations on an electronic brain at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It cost thousands of dollars and months of time.

Scientists at the Lincoln Laboratory project operated by MIT for the Air Force called the feat a notable step in space exploration. They said it permitted the first measurement with great accuracy of inter-planetary distances — an essential to future navigation in space.

The signal—bouncing off Venus, man's nearest neighbor beyond the moon, was disclosed Thursday night with a telegram from President Eisenhower offering congratulations upon a "notable achievement in our peaceful ventures into outer space."

Radar signals were bounced off the moon 13 years ago. The moon is less than a quarter million miles from the earth.

Officials Mum on Results Of High Altitude H-Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's spectacular high altitude nuclear blasts produced valuable information for both military men and scientists, officials say.

But they are talking only in general terms about knowledge gained from the three space explosions late last summer which sent a man-made electronic sheet around the world.

Quarles Says

After the hush-hush tests became known, Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles told a news conference Thursday:

1. The world's first known nuclear blasts in space helped the national security.

2. The tests advanced the basis of knowledge required to develop antimissile missiles; they produced results that will be used in perfecting radar systems needed to put an antimissile missile on course; they gave information to back up the Nike-Zeus antimissile now under development.

3. The explosions 300 miles above the South Atlantic will help U.S. offensive weapons.

'How' Not Told

Questions about the "how" of these statements got no answers.

Pentagon officials, however, indicated knowledge that certain radio frequencies and electromagnetic impulses would be interrupted by high altitude radiation.

The tests indicated a sort of electronic veil can be thrown around the earth to cut radar and radio reception. This might make it possible to knock out a nation's early warning system by nuclear blasts on the edges of space. Even if the invisible veil lasted only hours, it would be long enough to hide the rapid advance of attacking missiles or bombers.

Doubt Possibility

On the other hand, some sources had suggested a high nuclear blast could release enough radiation to make a dud of an enemy nuclear bomb. But many physicists doubt this is even a possibility.

Nonmilitary results of the tests eventually will be made public.

Nine ships of a special Navy task force took part in the secret project known as Argus. They included the aircraft carrier Tarawa and four destroyers. The 57-foot-long rockets that jabbed into space with their atomic payload were launched from the converted seaplane tender Norton Sound last Aug. 27, Aug. 30 and Sept. 6.

Be Explicit

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey gets some odd letters but this one from Lexington, Va., probably takes the cake:

"Dear Gov.," it began. "Would you please send me all the information that you can? Also, please send your picture.

LARGEST LAKE

Nevada's Lake Mead is the largest artificial lake in the world in volume and contains more than 32 million acre-feet of water.

Cops Hunt Stolen 4-Room House, Men Who Took It

CROYDON, England (AP) — The Croydon cops are looking for a two-bedroom house and the four strong men who stole it.

The aluminum, prefabricated model was on exhibit at a local housing development. The quartet of workmen skillfully took it apart, stowed it in a big truck and drove away. The contractor's only consolation was that the thieves left the brick foundation.

U.S. Space Explorer List Narrowed to 3 Dozen Men

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The field of 110 airman selected as potential U.S. space explorers has been narrowed to three dozen.

From the 36, a dozen are being chosen through further physical and psychological examinations.

From the 12 will come the nation's first space pilot, for Project Mercury. He will ride a rocket nose cone into space and back again.

Remains Secret

Who the men are is to remain a secret. In Washington, Dr. T. Keith Glennan, the nation's civilian space chief, has explained, "The final selections are a private privileged matter between the examining aero-medical specialists and the volunteers."

Several Weeks Ago

The 110 were selected, in the first place, several weeks ago according to requirements established by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's special advisory committee on life sciences.

Next to Last Civil War Vet Has Final Taps

SLANT, Va. (AP) — A bugler blew taps. Tears flowed freely. The casket of John Salling was lowered slowly into the ground.

Thus did the 112-year-old Civil War veteran reach his final resting place Thursday on a wind-swept hillside of southwest Virginia. A second funeral service—the first was held earlier at the Gate City Armory—ended the rites for "General John," next-to-the-last survivor of the Cvill War.

Only Walter W. Williams, 116, of Houston, Tex., another Confederate, is left.

"Ours is a finer, stronger and greater nation because of the suffering men like Salling were forced to face," said Army Chaplain William T. Mansen of Abingdon at the morning service.

Will Burn LA School, Learn How to Save Your Children

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fire! The school's on fire!

A cry to rip at a town's heart, to bring hysteria and heartbreak.

Next month an old school building—a regular fire trap—will go up in flames while fireman stand by and watch. They'll put the torch to it themselves.

Could Save Your Child

What happens then could save your child's life.

This will be one school fire that was planned ahead of time. Flames will roar up drafty open stairways, through transoms. They'll lick through wooden floors in a three-story school considered a potential death trap—a school a lot like those still filling with youngsters five days a week in some places.

Fire experts from over the nation will be watching the unusual experiment. It was born after Chicago's tragic school fire last Dec. 1 killed 94 persons, mostly children.

30 Years Old, Abandoned

The test building, Robert Louis Stevenson Junior High School, was abandoned because of foundation flaws. It is more than 30 years old.

"Operation school fire," starts April 11. At least 14 separate fires, sealed off from one another, are planned.

Fire officials feel it will take much of the guess work out of school safety precautions.

Planes, Pilots Must Register

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Licensed pilots and aircraft owners must register federal certificates for airmen and airworthiness by April 15 at $1 a certificate, The Illinois Aeronautics Department said Thursday.

If you spent every minute of every day of your life counting out one dollar bills, you could not reach the amount all advertisers invested in daily newspaper advertising last year — $3,120,000,000.

Loses Tractor

Robs Bank Without Use of Gun

KRUM, Tex. (AP) — Charles Roy McCrory, 19, worried because his sharecropper family's tractor was repossessed, robbed the Farmers & Merchants State Bank here Thursday without a gun.

An alert Texas highway patrolman arrested him an hour later as McCrory filled the gas tank of a pickup truck he used as a get-away vehicle.

Pulls Out $1,865

Police who followed highway patrolman Claud Hogue into the filling station at his radio summons pulled $1,865 from the vehicle's glove compartment.

Krum is about 35 miles northwest of Dallas.

All the money was recovered, police said. Dist. Atty. Robert Caldwell Jr., who filed charges of armed bank robbery against the pleasant-mannered robber, said the charges may have to be modified because McCrory had no gun.

McCrory, smiling and joking with his captors, told them he handed a note to Mrs. Ruth Hilliard, cashier of the bank, which read:

"My Looks Is Security"

"I want to borrow $2,000 for two years. Give me all your $5, $10, and $20 bills. My looks is my security."

"When she put her hand into the drawer," he laughed, "I thought she was going for a gun and she nearly scared the living daylights out of me."

Stayed Up Late

McCrory said he stayed up late Wednesday night trying to figure a way to get money to regain a tractor that had been repossessed. He said he farmed near Boyd, in adjoining Wise County, with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs R. B. McCrory. He said he decided than to rob the Krum bank.

Guy Mitchell, Lumber Firm Owner Fight

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — Singer Guy Mitchell and a lumber company owner agree they had a fight but they're at odds on who started it.

Abe Berman testified at a hearing Thursday that Mitchell owes him $233 for lumber used in building a den. His left eye was blackened, he said, and he suffered injuries to his hands, arms, stomach and back.

Mitchell said he owes Berman no money but that when he rode by him on horseback Wednesday Berman made a slurring remark and threw a couple of punches at him.

Bomb Threat Hits Centralia Schools

CENTRALIA (AP) — About 1,600 students in Centralia Township High School and Junior College were evacuated Thursday after an anonymous telephone caller said a bomb was "set to go off any minute."

Truck Hits School Bus, Few Hurt

MOULTRIE, Ga. (AP) — Nearly 40 children escaped with minor injuries when a trailer truck smacked into the rear of a school bus Thursday and cascaded its load of cast iron pipe into the rear of the homeward bound bus.

The truck driver, Johnny A. Spears of Anniston, Ala., leaped from his vehicle just before the collision plunged the heavy sections of pipe through the cab.

The bus was carrying 75 school pupils ranging from 6 to 16 years of age.

Thirty-seven youngsters were treated for injuries. None was hurt critically. The accident occurred at Doerun, 12 miles northwest of here.

Spears was treated for shock and several broken ribs. He said he saw the school bus but did not know it was going to stop until too late.

Pieces of cast iron pipe ripped up some of the seats in the rear of the bus and narrowly missed some of the children.

Ike Has Budgetary Ups, Downs Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was experiencing a series of budgetary ups and downs on Capitol Hill today, with more bumps in the immediate offing.

Upset Ike's Program

In separate actions, the Senate and the House Thursday further upset the President's program for a balanced budget for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

The House, by roll-call vote of 262-134, passed a 297-million-dollar four-year airport aid program which exceeded the President's recommendations by 97 millions.

Concurrently, the Senate voted to charge against the new budget $1,375,000,000 of new United States subscriptions to the International Monetary Fund. The President had counted on charging this item against this year's budget, already heavily unbalanced, instead of against the 1960 ledger.

Precariously Balanced

By counting on higher gasoline taxes, postal rates and other tax gains which Congress appears to be shunning, Eisenhower had submitted a 1960 budget precariously balanced at about 77 billion dollars. He has repeatedly urged Congress to keep spending down to that figure.

But the Senate, which also has passed a housing bill far exceeding Eisenhower's estimates, is debating a 389½-million-dollar bill for area redevelopment, compared with a 53-million-dollar program Eisenhower asked.

The airport bill goes to a Senate-House conference committee for adjustment of differences between measures passed by the two chambers.

The Senate previously had approved a 465 million dollar airport program. Somewhere between those two figures a compromise will be reached, but it will be nowhere near the president's 200-million figure.

GOPs Fail

Republicans, with a smattering of Democratic aid, tried to hold the House version down to Eisenhower's recommendation. They lost out by a 214-194 count. They complained loudly against what they called "budget-busting."

The Senate vote on the monetary fund bill was more lopsided. The bill was passed 73-10 after the Senate voted 58-25 to charge the funds against next year's budget rather than this year's.

Plan 7-Stage Rocket to Take Man to Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A space scientist says a seven-stage rocket to take man to the moon within the next four years is in the planning stages.

The rocket, called Nova, was described at a conference here Thursday by Dr. Abe Silverstein, director of space flight development for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Silverstein said the first three stages will be 260 feet tall—about equal to a 26-story building. He gave no details of the final four stages.

The first three stages will power the rocket to the moon. It may carry two or three men. A fourth stage will slow the rocket down for landing on the moon, and the other three will return it to earth.

John Quincy Adams was the first U.S. president to wear long trousers to his inauguration.
